Here is a new webcam from Earth Trek Hong Kong that is specially designed to avoid scratches on your laptop's LCD screen. The new desktop version of webcam features a metal sliding cover to protect the camera. Its camera also features an auto focus, auto brightness, snap button, and a 2 port USB Hub. It offers a VGA quality image (640x480), and has a 1.3 MP sensor. Earth Trek's latest desktop webcam is priced at around $50. [\[Akihabara via Digital Camera Blog\]](#)
